General Information

All adults attending meets as part of a Company or Battalion membership must be registered with BBHQ and possess a current CRB/DBS disclosure for working in Boys' Brigade, this ensures that Brigade Insurance is in place.

For weekend or longer meets it is the responsibility of the Battalion or Company that the Officer in charge of their members holds a BB Holiday Leadership certificate and notifies BBHQ.

Risk Assessments should also be carried out, BBMC has these for the activities only – which is what we are responsible for organising, leading and supervising – At all times young people attending meets remain the ultimate responsibility of their accompanying officers/leaders.

Additional contacts can be added to our mailing database, please detail this on page 3.
